

Hotel Franciacorta, an unusual building immersed in the landscape of an area really beautiful: the Franciacorta. A corner of the world that has managed to maintain a good balance between the needs of development, the environment and human tissue. Located in a easy to access the hotel Franciacorta is spread over an area of 5,000 square meters of which 3,000 square meters are intended to garden. It has 24 comfortable rooms with bathroom, direct dial telephone, radio, television and mini bar, large living room for breakfast with adjacent room for reading and watching TV, underground parking for each room.